

Police are appealing for information following a series of incidents of criminal damage to cars driving in the Beccles and Bungay area. Reports have suggested that, what is believed to be, stones were being thrown at cars from a passing vehicle in the cover of darkness.

Details of the incidents are as follows:

- At around 11:30pm on Friday 24 May, a car travelling on the A146 near North Cove sustained a smashed wing mirror.
- At approximately 11:50pm on Saturday 1 June, a car travelling on the A143 near Ditchingham was damaged.
- At approximately 10:30pm on Sunday 2 June, a car travelling on the A146 at the Barnby Bends sustained damage to its bumper.
- At approximately 10:40pm on Sunday 2 June, a car travelling on the A146 between Beccles and Lowestoft sustained damage to its bonnet.
- At around 00:30am on Monday 3 June, a car travelling on A143 near Ellingham sustained damage to the grill.

Police are investigating whether these incidents are linked and would like to remind members of the public that throwing objects at cars is a criminal offence, capable of causing damage and injury. Officers are conducting a full investigation to apprehend those responsible.

Police are also urging drivers to report such incidents as soon as possible with the location of travel and with as much detail as possible to assist with enquiries.

Anyone who has been a victim, or has any information about these incidents or who may have dash-cam footage is asked to contact Suffolk Police on 101 quoting CAD 11 of 3 June.
