

Lorry watch scheme

Bungay Town Council would like to recruit more observers to the Lorry Watch scheme currently in operation in the town .

The scheme is sponsored by Suffolk Trading Standards and Bungay Town Council. Trained observers note and submit to the Co- ordinator the details of vehicles which contravene the North- South lorry ban - Broad Street, Trinity Street, Staithe Road and Wharton Street - which is in place. (Lorries are permitted to travel from Halesworth through the town)

A comprehensive training session, led by an officer from Suffolk Trading Standards, has been organised for 11am Tuesday 7 March in the Council Chamber and everyone who is interested in becoming an observer is welcome to attend . Those who are observers currently are also invited for a ' refresher ' .The session will last for approximately an hour ; you will be given all the information and forms needed to undertake the observations.
